WHAT THE BIBLE IS ABOUT

A NON-RELIGIOUS INFORMED
APPRECIATION OF THE BIBLE

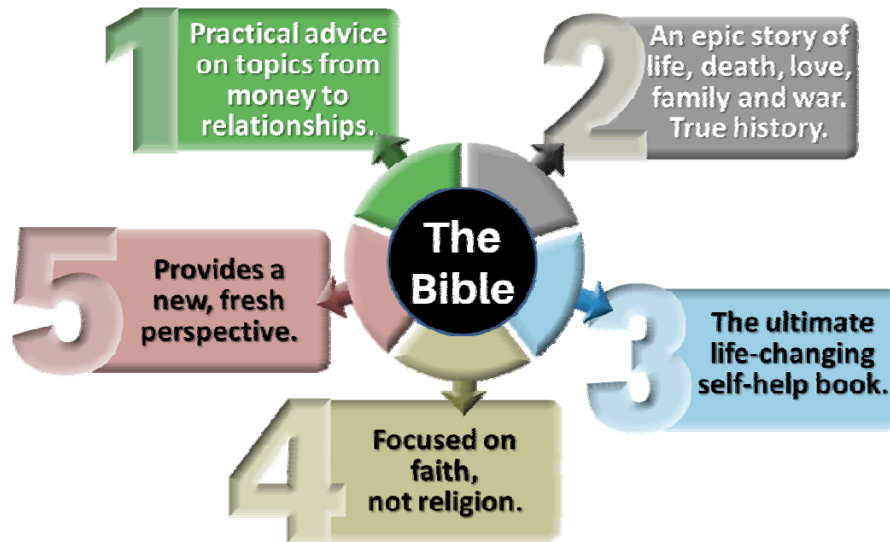

Tutor: Ray Sarlin

For centuries, the Bible has been considered a special document by the World's three great monotheistic religions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam... and by many other religions as well. Discover for yourself many of the unique features that make it so whilst learning to apply the perspectives and tools covered in this course to better appreciate the many dimensions of the most popular book in history. Each week will examine one or more passages in detail. Whilst using the Christian Bible (Old Testament (Hebrew Tenakh) and New Testament) for teaching purposes, this non-religious/non-denominational course does not specify any particular version or translation (even though significant variances will be unearthed), and students may use any Bible of their own preference.
